

Basketry Classes 2004

Featuring Guest Teachers:
Patti Hawkins & Judy Zugish

GH Productions, Inc.

521 E. Walnut St.
Scottsville, KY 42164
270-237-4821 • 800-447-7008
www.basketmakerscatalog.com

Dear Friends,

You will absolutely delight in the classes offered with instructors Patti Hawkins and Judy Zugish.

Patti is the "Queen of Twill" and has instructed classes all across the United States. She'll share her knowledge as she offers two exciting and fun classes—you won't want to miss out on either day.

Judy Zugish returns to Kentucky from Marysville, Washington. Take a look at the back of this page to see the unique classes she's bringing us. Choose from willow bark, copper, skeined willow, cedar barks and cordage and experience this rare opportunity to explore your own creativity using natural materials—for all levels.

Classes will be held in our classroom located at 521 East Walnut Street in Scottsville, Kentucky. To register for a class, or for more information, give us a call at 270-237-4821 (local) or 800-447-7008 TOLL FREE. Class sizes are limited so register early. Prices include all instruction and materials. *Payment is due at time of registration**; materials and instructions provided to anyone who registers but is unable to attend. No refund. Your payment will not be processed until the day of the class. Please refer to notes beside each class for deadlines to register.

We look forward to hearing from you.

Beth

To Register*: Call 270-237-4821 (local)

or 800-447-7008 (Toll FREE)

Class sizes are limited so register early.

Tuesday Sept. 21, 2004

8:30 - 4:30 Cost: $74.00

Level: Advanced Beginner/Intermediate

6" base, 12" diameter x 7" high

Undulating Twill Made Easy

Instructor: Patti Hawkins

Deadline to register: Sept. 20, 2004

This exquisite bowl showcases a beautiful undulating design that appears to move before your eyes! Discover the secrets of using a simple twill and the perfect number of spokes, weaving continuously to create "waves" and reversals where you choose. Featuring an oak base, the basket and is woven over a mold for a perfect shape, allowing students to concentrate on their own personal designs. Completed with waxed linen lashing.

"I love this basket because it eliminates all the hassle of dealing with several different widths of weavers and constantly changing them that most undulating twills require. The simplicity of altering the widths is almost like magic! It is not hard to do and allows the students to alter the designs as they wish to personalize their baskets." - Patti Hawkins

Plain and Fancy

Instructor: Patti Hawkins

Deadline to register: Sept. 20, 2004

Discover exciting design possibilities using only plain, over/under weave — simply through creative placement of dyed and natural stakes and weavers. Students may choose from many distinctly different options, as they are encouraged to experiment with their own designs in this fun and challenging class. Wooden base and heavy rim make this basket as sturdy as it is beautiful. Completed with waxed linen lashing.

Size: 10" diameter x 6" high.

"This is brand new and I love the possibilities." - Patti Hawkins

Wednesday Sept. 22, 2004

9:00 - 4:00 Cost: $74.00

Level: Advanced Beginner/Intermediate

Please bring to all Classes: Container for water, spray bottle and towel. Also, bring along any of your favorite basket making tools.

Friday Oct. 22, 2004

8:30 - 4:30

Size: 5" x 10" base x 2.5" high

Willow Bark Tray—a weaver's delight

Instructor: Judy Zugish

Cost: $99.00

Level: All (twill experience helpful)

Deadline to register: Oct. 1, 2004

Starting with willow skins from a select harvest and prepared copper strips, we will explore a formed and functional twilled tray basket suitable for serving and display. The marriage of copper and willow barks is strong and elemental, twinkling in sunlight and flowing in candlelight. A weaver's delight.

Judy will expertly prepare the bark and copper for you and you'll love creating with these two gorgeous and complimentary materials.

We invite you to help us welcome the return of Judy Zugish of Marysville, Washington. Judy's work is an extension of her personal artistic directions and reflective of her love of gardening and all things that grow. Judy teaches across the United States as well as in her garden studio at Bouquet Banque Nursery in Marysville. Enjoy viewing her work at www.twigtwisters.com.

Sat. Oct. 23, 2004

8:30 -12:30 (4 hours)

Size: 12" x 2.5"

Deadline to register Oct. 1, 2004

Inspired on a recent basketry trip to Japan and made with hand-dyed cane in your choice of colors, this lovely vase is lined with a black bamboo water tube (shown at right with floral arrangement). Attention to openwork, shaping and elegance of line with a braidweave collar.

Wow! Take advantage of this opportunity to work with the special Japanese hand-dyed cane and capture the spirit of Japan. A truly lovely hanging vase that you'll enjoy using to display special blossoms and cut flowers.

Needles and Nickels

Instructor: Judy Zugish

Sat. Oct. 23, 2004

Size: Necklace Size

Level: All

1:30 - 5:30 (4 hours)

Cost: $46.00

Deadline to register Oct. 1, 2004

Create 2 necklace baskets in natural materials—a new design and a useful tool necklace! Weave your cylinders with prepared cedar barks and one long, slim and supple skein of willow. Coordinate cordage to suit yourself, pop your sewing needles inside and never go searching again. Students will complete one necklace and begin a second in class.

Materials: Northwest coast cedar barks, hand-skeined willow, and cordage

